

You're Invited to the NOSHA 2011 Safety Conference: "When Accidents Happen . . . "

October 5th, 2011, 8:30 am to 3:30 pm
Howard Johnson Inn (formerly Clarion Inn)
1210 N 43rd Street, Grand Forks, North Dakota

This year's conference centers on what to anticipate when dealing with a serious workplace accident, OSHA violation or environmental issue/disaster. As the saying goes "Forewarned is forearmed." Ensuring that you are informed and prepared is the best policy in situations where emotions may be raw and/or the resolution of the incident may involve numerous stakeholders.

Opening Keynote: 8:30 am Edward Cassidy is a litigator with more than 29 years of experience in workers' compensation, employment law, civil litigation, and OSHA. He and his associate Lori-Ann Jones will discuss the changing OSHA climate.

MORNING CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 10:30 am 11:30 am

- UND Conflict Resolution Center (CRC), "Bullying in the Workplace," Kristine Paronica, Director UND CRC.
- UND Public Relations, "It's the Public at the Door -- What Are We Going to Tell Them?" A Communication Primer," Peter Johnson, Executive Associate VP for University Relations

AFTERNOON CONCURRENT WORKSHOPS 1:00 pm 2:00 pm

- Grand Forks Fire Department, "Who's on Fire?!?," Terry Wynne, Fire Marshal
- ND Department of Health — Division of Waste Management, "Dealing with Universal Waste," Chris Roob, Environmental Scientist

Closing Session: ND Petroleum Council, "What's Really Happening Out West...Safety in the Oil field," Kari Cutting, VP ND Petroleum Council

Seating is limited so we encourage you to register as soon as possible. This event is free to you and your staff.

For complete information about the 2011 NOSHA Safety Conference and a link to on-line registration, please visit the NOSHA website at www.nosha.net.